

Guards Have Busy Week

From the BCBP

The Brigantine Times July 16, 2010 Page 5

The City of Brigantine Fire Department responded to 39 EMS and 13 Fire calls for service during the week ending July 12th, including 4 instances where multiple EMS units responded to different calls in the same time period.

Responding to fire calls of a more serious nature, on Tuesday morning, July 6th, the members of 'B' platoon, under the command of Captain James Reynolds, responded in Engine 3 to the base of the Brigantine Bridge next to the parking

Saturday morning, July 10th, the members of 'A' platoon, under the command of Lieutenant Dan Jackson, responded to the Celebrity Resorts Hotel on Ocean Avenue, for a report of a people stuck in a room.

Upon their arrival, they found a unit on the 6th floor, with one occupant outside, and 3 occupants inside, including 2 small juveniles, that were unable to disengage the dead bolt lock. The Engine 3 crew of Firefighter-EMT's Trevor Cohen and Mike Lange used a Former Eagles Jon Runyon and Ike Reese were in attendance at the 'progressive dinner' held last Saturday to raise money for Family Service. Over 100 people took part at $125 a person. The event was chaired by Ann Wenitsky.

for the patient utilizing the bag Dock. Upon their arrival, the a more routine nature, including cardiac emergencies, respi-

Page 2 The Brigantine Times July 16, 2010

Garden Club News

Our July meeting was quick and to the point. Committees reported projects are on track but there are still some north end bed that need tenders. It doesn't take a lot of time but does give you a feeling of satisfaction knowing that you are doing something to beautify the Island where you live. If you can help, please call our answering machine, 266-3685, leave a local phone number and why you are calling and the coordinator will get back to you.

Our speaker for the night was local, long time lawn care owner builder, Steve Hurtt. He had a lot of information on new grasses and products that are appropriate for our area. His expertise came out in his simple but informative approach to "the perfect lawn" is one that everyone understood and could use in their own yards.

Many of the members who would be walking around the neighborhoods looking for homes to receive our prestigious Pronertv Awards have awards are simple - a neat, well kept property, lawns cut, no weeds in the gardens, stones, sidewalk or gutters; no clutter or laundry hanging from porches; no trash cans left out unless it's trash day. It is also important to remember that we aren't judging the landscaping, each home is different and personal, we're just looking for an appealing property.

OUR BROCHURES ARE AVAILABLE IN LOCAL BUSINESSES so pick one up for information on upcoming events. Be sure to check out the beautiful flier done by Andrea Ples which should also be in many local businesses to help stimulate interest in joining the Garden Club.

The Garden Club has a beautiful bronze Memorial Tree located in the lower level of the Brigantine Library. It is a unique and lasting way to remember a special person, date or occasion such as an anniversary, wedding or to memorialize a lost loved one. Leaves are $50.00 and forms are available

Here are the dinner hosts who helped make last Saturday's 'progressive dinner' a big success. The event raised funding for Family Service. Shown are, 1 to r, Lori and Jon Sarkisian, Cheryl and Howard Hassman, Orsula and Cal Knowlton, Sally and George Blood, Pam and David Finkel, Nancy and Stephen Hassman. Back row is Tom and Beverly Tranovich of Family Service.

call. Garden tip: a lot of plants, a really bad problem ask a pro- mmentations and if you have formation or questions on our programs. You may leave